THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 2.

SINGULAR RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—That was a singular accident which occurred to a train on the Indianapolis and Cincinnati Railroad, the other day, and which has already been briefly mentioned in these columns. The train was approaching Cincinnati at the usual rate, when, at the Cleves bridge over the White-water, it was suddenly brought to a stop. As it was about to enter the bridge, and just as the engine had reached it, the wind grasped with the train, and clutching the passenger cars, lifted them off their trucks, and hurled them down the embankment turning them completely over and right side up again, with their freight of men, women and children. One of the cars was completely wrecked by the fall. Of course, the most terrible alarm was felt by all the passengers until they recovered from the confusion of the shock and knew the worst had come. They knew nothing, expected nothing, until they felt themselves lifted and thrown in the wrong direction, turned heel over head, jammed, pounded and hammered, and then quiet, in all kinds of uncomfortable positions. When they commenced to extricate themselves, many of them were found bleeding profusely, and as they emerged into the darkness and rain, from the slight shelter of the wreck it was feared that many were terribly injured, and some, perhaps, killed. Very fortunately, however, this was not the result. Many were badly bruised, several severely cut about the head and face, but none were dangerously injured.

The shock they experienced must have been very severe indeed, for many of them were jerked about from floor to roof, and from seat to seat. One of the ladies, Mrs. Murray, of Indianapolis, was somewhat injured internally, and several others were slightly injured, but no bones were broken.

VALUABLE MILL SEAT FOR SALE.

Pursuant to a decree of the Circuit Court of Fairfax county, rendered in the suit of E. O. Powell, et al., vs. Hunter, &c., at the June term, 1897, of said Court, the undersigned, as Commissioner, will, on MONDAY, the 20th day of April, 1898, at being Court Monday, offer, at public auction, to the highest bidder, the property of the Court House of said county, that valuable property known as "HUNTER'S MILL," This property lies immediately on the A. L. & H. R. R., at which point there is a turnout, and contains 1381 acres of highly productive land. The mills, both grist and saw, were destroyed during the war, but as a mill seat it is regarded as the most valuable in Fairfax county, the stream on which it is located affording water at all seasons of the year. This property being situated on the railroad, the productiveness of the land, and the valuable water privileges, render it altogether the most desirable property in market in Fairfax county. The entire tract will be sold subject to the right of dower of Mrs. Mary A. Hunter, to that portion which has been allotted her, and includes the Dwelling House. Her right can be bought on reasonable terms.

TERMS.—One-tenth of the purchase-money in hand, as a deposit, liable to be forfeited upon the purchaser failing to complete his purchase upon confirmation by the Court; the residue in three equal payments, at six, twelve and eighteen months, with interest from the day of sale, to be secured by the notes of the purchaser, and a retention of the title until the last payment is made. Stamps and expenses of conveyance at the cost of the purchaser.

This land lies on the Little River Pike, 3 of a mile west of the Court House; adjoins the lands of N. Burke, Rumsey and others, and was, at the breaking out of the war, in a good state of cultivation. Its location renders it a desirable property.

TERMS.—One-fourth cash in hand, and the residue in three equal instalments, payable at six, twelve and eighteen months, to be secured by the notes of the purchaser, and a retention of the title until the last payment is made, or until the day of sale, interest from day of sale. Seydell and wife and others are defendants, the undersigned Commissioner, will sell, before the front door of the Court House of said county, on MONDAY, the 6th day of April, 1898, the being Court day, at public auction to the highest bidder, the TRACT or PARCEL OF LAND, containing 217 acres, situated about 4 miles south of Manassas, and about 24 miles from Brentsville, the county seat, adjoining the lands of John Arnold and others, and is a tract of land well watered and timbered, and from its proximity to the railroad, the timber is very valuable.
